Child Care Center names new member to board

Phyllis Herz will serve on Mount Kisco Child Care Center board of directors.

Ms. Herz boasts an extensive career in education that encompasses classroom teaching in special education and developing and running a private practice with special needs children in the areas of early intervention and education evaluations. She has spoken extensively to educator training programs in the areas of best practices and methods of successfully integrating special education methods and specialists in the classroom.

Prior to her new position on the board, Ms. Herz served as an administrator of the highly respected intergenerational program at My Second Home, a program of Family Services of Westchester. This intergenerational program, JEWEL, is a collaborative effort between My Second Home and the Mount Kisco Child Care Center.

Ms. Herz developed programming and coordinated and trained staff for the integration of seniors in a day facility with children at MKCCC.

In addition to her work with MKCCC, Ms. Herz lends her time serving on the board of trustees at the Solomon Schechter School of Westchester, is on the grants committee for the Jewish Women's Foundation of New York and is an active member and fundraiser for the Cornell Parents Fund as well as chairwoman of the social action committee at her synagogue. Ms. Herz holds a master's in education from the University of Maryland.

MKCCC is located at 95 Radio Circle, Mount Kisco. For additional information, visit www.mkccc.org or call 241-2135. Follow MKCCC on www.facebook.com/MKCCC and www.twitter.com/MKCCC10549 for the latest news and updates.
