

THE Country SHOPPER

February 13, 2010

People in the News

Beusman joins center board of directors

Dr. Curtis Beusman has joined the Mount Kisco Child Care Center Board of Directors as chairman of the fundraising committee.

Dr. Beusman, who founded Curtis Instruments and Saw Mill Club, was named Citizen of the Year in 2009 by the Mount Kisco Chamber of Commerce. He is a recognized leader worldwide in the health and fitness business arenas and was a founder of the International Health and Racquet Sports Association. In addition to serving on the board, Dr. Beusman also served on the Chappaqua School Board for five years; was active in the Chappaqua Drama Group, where he served as president; and was chairman of the capital fund committee for The Jacob Burns Film Center. Dr. Beusman is an active supporter of The Open Door, Northern Westchester Hospital, and various other charitable organizations.

"Curt will help us because he believes deeply in family and community," said Dottie Jordan, executive director of Mount Kisco Child Care Center at 95 Radio Circle in Mount Kisco. "His background and expertise will help us meet — and even surpass — our goals."

Dr. Beusman holds a bachelor of science from Northwestern University, a doctorate from the University of Cincinnati and a master's of business administration from Columbia University. He is longtime resident of Mount Kisco and has two grown children.

Information: mkccc.org.