The Mount Kisco Child Care Center celebrated 40 years of service with the "Waves of Possibility" dinner on June 9 at the Mount Kisco Country Club. The event raised over $160,000, which will go to the center.

"It was an exceptional evening," said Dottie Jordan, executive director of Mount Kisco Child Care Center. "We are so grateful to the teachers who have dedicated so much to the Center and to the community members who joined us in the celebration."

"Waves of Possibility" was held to honor the teachers of Mount Kisco Child Care Center who have dedicated their time and services throughout the past 40 years.

"Our goal has remained the same since the beginning; to nurture the possibility and potential of every child in our program," explained Jordan. "These committed teachers have created an environment that fosters that potential"

Mount Kisco Child Care Center is a non-sectarian childcare facility that opened its doors to the families of Mount Kisco and the surrounding areas in 1971. Since then, MKCCC has provided early-care and education to children who are between the ages of three months and five years old. They also have a program for children up to 12 years old.

Mount Kisco Child Care Center, located at 95 Radio Circle, Mount Kisco, NY. For more information call 914-241-2135 or visit www.mkccc.org.
