

BUSINESS JOURNAL

August 3, 2009

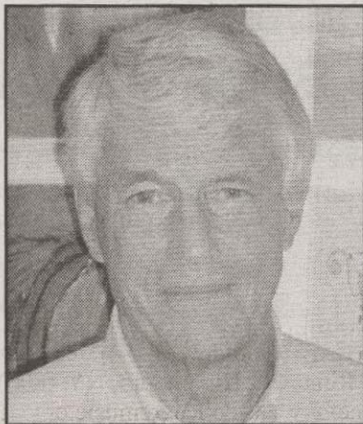

Newsmakers

Tyler H. Beebe joins Mount Kisco Child Care Center Board of Directors

Tyler H. Beebe has joined the board of directors at Mt. Kisco Child Care Center. He will serve as the board's treasurer. Beebe, who is now retired, served as Managing Director and Portfolio Manager for Invesco, LLC, in Manhattan.

In addition to serving on the MKCCC Board, Beebe sits on the Board of The Open Door Family Medical Centers, which provides quality, affordable health care and human services to people who are economically disadvantaged; and of the National Association on Drug Abuse Problems, which provides employment development services to help individuals recovering from substance abuse to re-enter the workforce.

Beebe is an active supporter of Ossining Children's Center, Teatown Lake Reservation and Westchester Community College.

"Tyler's involvement with various community-based organizations makes him a perfect addition to our board. His experience will enable him to lend appropriate insight into how we can continue to provide affordable, quality child care to members of our community. We welcome him to our Board," said Dottie Jordan, executive director of Mount Kisco

Child Care Center.

Beebe holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Brown University and an M.B.A in Finance from New York University.